(n)Collage

July 25 – September 14, 2014

Opening Artists' reception:

Friday, July 25, 5 – 8 pm

Dear Art Supporter,

Will you join us as a partner in an exciting “new collage” exhibit this Summer at the non-profit Petaluma Arts Center? The (n)collage exhibit will be the third in a series of critically acclaimed collage-related exhibits at the Center, curated by Joseph McDonald: Digital Alchemy (2011) and Digital Mixed Media (2012). Featured artists have included Chuck Close, Hung Liu, Raymond Saunders, Squeak Carnwath, Don Farnsworth and David Best, among others.

McDonald will gather works from California’s active and experimental mixed media collage artists, to include collage, 3-D, found object and digital assemblages. The exhibit will feature work by Inez Storer, a well-known collage artist (Point Reyes). Storer and colleague Jamie Brunson (Oakland) will present a weekend workshop to benefit the Arts Center.

The budget is $ 7,000, to present this exhibition at the Arts Center’s galleries. A second exhibit of collage will be privately-funded at the new IceHouse Gallery, across the railroad tracks from our galleries, at Digital Grange Fine Art Services. The two exhibitions will “jump the tracks” adding to the sizzle of collage in the North Bay region. [IceHouse Gallery’s exhibit has its own budget.]

Your gift, large or small – is important! With your partnership, the exhibition will match the consistent high quality of exhibitions, classes, and events our community has supported over the years. The Petaluma Arts Center is a major hub for artists, art and culture in the North San Francisco Bay region. With community support from people like you who CARE about arts and culture, you’ll help bring along the next generation. Please see more about our 501(c)(3) at www.petalumaartscenter.org
We are happy to meet with you or answer questions about this cutting edge educational exhibition.

Thanking you in advance,

Joseph McDonald
